THE NOBLEMAN WINE LIST

2017 ACCENDO CELLARS CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Accendo Cellars 2017 Cabernet Sauvignon from Napa Valley is a complex, rich, and confident wine that can certainly hold its own. Aged in French oak barrels for 21 months, this delicious wine will develop beautifully for years to come. With strong notes of brambly fruit, sage, and bay leaf, the flavor profile is aromatic and expressive. Complete with traces of hoisin, mint, and black tea, its lush intensity is impossible to miss. This is a wine with vitality and depth, and a truly standout Cabernet. $360/bottle. accendocellars.com

2017 JONATA TODOS

The 2017 Todos Red Wine Vineyard Blend is a complex mix of balance, freshness, and power. Standout notes of black truffle, jasmine, five spice, black pepper, and clove, are complemented by dried blueberry, aged balsamic, and mission fig. The exotic combination is pulled together with hints of dried tobacco and mint. Powerful and expressive, this wine maintains a refined balance making it both approachable and fantastically compelling. $50/bottle. jonata.com

2016 COVERT ESTATE SAGE HILL VINEYARD CABERNET SAUVIGNON

The 2016 Cabernet Sauvignon from Sage Hill Vineyard has an expressive personality and rich flavor profile that you won't want to miss. Summer heat waves produced uncommonly ripe grapes, adding to this wine's luxurious flavor. A mineral and earth-forward nose quickly transforms into an explosion of fruit with an almost savory finish. Carefully balanced acidity and impressive depth will allow this wine to age well for many years. $250/bottle. covertestate.com

2017 CORNELL VINEYARDS CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Born from the harsh climate on a slope of the Mayacamas, this wine has a personality—filled with strength and conviction—worth savoring. The cabernet is formidable, with a nose of black tea, rose petal, crème de cassis, and warm spices. Revealed in the palate are layers of rich wild blackberry, fresh coffee beans, clove, and olive zest. Intense, aromatic, and captivating, this wine is unapologetic and extraordinary. Certainly a fine wine worth indulging in, this bottling weathered the storm, and you taste it in every sip. $150/bottle. cornellvineyards.com

TIME FLIES WHEN YOU'RE HAVING RUM

Set in a decanter inspired by the beauty of the Caribbean, the Dictador Generations En Lalique has become one of the most highly-sought after rum bottles on the market. With hints of leather, plum, and clove, this 1976 recipe is one that exceeds all expectations. Dictator Generations En Lalique pays tribute to the generations of rum blenders in the Parra family, this expression being the first made by father and son, Hernan and Dario Parra. Sold at the auction price of $42,000 this luxurious liquid is only the beginning of Dictador's global vision. From the aroma of cocoa powder and black cherry leading to the finishing notes of oak spices and dark chocolate, the Dictador En Lalique is complex and a must-try this summer.
